Re: Challenger Holdings LLC v. Jetcraft Global (UK) Limited,
USDC, SDNY Case No. 23 Civ. 05147 (PKC) (the "Action")

Dear Judge Castel:

We represent Plaintiff Challenger Holdings LLC, ("Challenger") in the above referenced case, and write pursuant to Rule 21.8 of the Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and this Court's Individual Instructions and Practices to request that certain declaration exhibits which we are filing pursuant to the Court's scheduling order (ECF#33), be provisionally filed under seal, as all of these exhibits were marked confidential pursuant to the Court's confidentiality order (ECF#22).

Among the exhibits Challenger intends to use at trial are the following:

1. Exhibit C: Aircraft Purchase Agreement between Challenger and Defendant Jetcraft Global (UK) Limited ("Jetcraft")
2. Exhibit D: Jetcraft's Aircraft Inspection Report with accompanying email transmittal
3. Exhibit E: Jetcraft's Notes on Technical Document Review for Aircraft 5737
4. Exhibit F: Email Exchanges among Jetcraft Employees
5. Exhibit I: Technical Evaluation Checklist of West Star Aviation and accompanying emails

The above exhibits have been designated confidential by either Jetcraft or non-parties as they contain information that is non-public. We believe that none of the exhibits have been made public, and, upon information and belief, have so far not been relied upon by any court in connection with any exercise of judicial authority.

As such, Challenger respectfully requests that the Court maintain these exhibits under seal until such time that Your Honor rules on whether the materials should remain under seal. However, Challenger takes no position on whether these documents should be sealed.

We thank the Court for its time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
